Pay and Allowances of Sanitary Inspectors.

Ordering that Sanitary Inspectors employed for plague duty should be paid the salaries and allowances specified by the Sanitary Commissioner.

C No 6178
1907

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From Lieutenant-Colonel W. G. KING, I.M.S., M.B., C.M., D.P.H., Sanitary Commissioner for Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, dated Camp, Kamalapuram, 30th November 1898, No. 2934-S.

As I am in receipt of references showing that confusion exists on the subject, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to issue orders to the Collectors of districts and the Accountant-General, describing the official designation and the rates of pay and allowances Sanitary Inspectors are entitled to, with the object of facilitating the disbursement of pay and allowances to these men by the Treasury officers concerned.

2. The following are the classes of Sanitary Inspectors and the rates of pay and allowances sanctioned them, when on plague duty, by Government:—

(1) Certificated Sanitary Inspectors.—They are men who have received a certificate signed by the incumbent of this office, and the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, after passing the Intermediate Examination in Hygiene, and after attending a course of theoretical and practical instruction in the Medical College, Madras. They are entitled to Rs. 45 salary, plus Rs. 15 fixed travelling allowance, plus Rs. 15 horse allowance (vide G.O., No. 93 P., dated 26th February 1898).

(2) Temporary Sanitary Inspectors.—These are men who have been specially trained for plague duty by the incumbent of this office, and have satisfied him as to their fitness after examination. They get Rs. 40 salary, plus Rs. 15 fixed travelling allowance, plus Rs. 15 horse allowance, together with bare pay at the above rate (Rs. 40) for the period they were under training in Madras (vide G.O., No. 355 P., dated 18th April 1898).

(3) Assistant Sanitary Inspectors.—These are men trained as in the case of Temporary Sanitary Inspectors, but occupy an inferior place in the examination lists. They are entitled to not more than Rs. 25 pay. They are intended to serve in unions, and therefore, so long as they are stationary, get no allowances.

(4) Reserve Sanitary Inspectors.—These are maintained by this office for supply of requirements of Collectors of districts on demand by them (vide Plague Commissioner's Proceedings, No. 88, dated 7th October 1898). These may be either Certificated or Temporary Sanitary Inspectors. Their number is limited to ten. They are entitled to half-pay without allowances whilst at my disposal. On being posted to districts, they are entitled to pay and allowances according to the class mentioned above.

3. All classes are allowed travelling allowance for joining duty in districts under article 1191 of the Civil Service Regulations.

Endt. No. 271.

Referred to the Plague Commissioner for remarks.

(Signed) H. TREMENHEERE,
Secretary to Government.

7th December 1898.

The rates of pay and allowances quoted by the Sanitary Commissioner in his letter are in accordance with previous Government orders.

Classes (1), (2) and (4) may be appointed Plague Inspectors.

Class (3) may be appointed Assistant Plague Inspectors.

14th December 1898.
