Item for orders.

75 men seems almost too few for Hindupur. Perhaps 50 might be sent.

It was seen that an officer, unless detached from his regt., can only be required to supervise the work of his men. If it is wished to give him other plague work, he must be put on special duty.

I also think too that to disinfect Hindupur would require enough supervision to any officer.

Note for Lt Col

In the papers below the Col of transport lists (among other things) for 100 Sepoys under a British officer for disinfection work at Hindupur.

He undoubtedly requires help in this direction, but I doubt if a general disinfection is practicable - it will take long. I should like him to have 25 Sepoys for disinfection work - for the present. A receipt of further 25, it may be found necessary to ask for the full 100. In asking liability for 25, the probable demand for 75 more should be mentioned. I don't know from what centre they will be sent. Bangalore is nearest.

While in the list that the British officers in command of disinfection detachments have but little to do. The native officers are quite capable of supervising the disinfection work.

 I spoke to one of them, I found he would be glad if was given something to do. I think they might well be given general charge of plague questions in the locality to which they are sent, working under the Director, or the Dist. Officer, if a European. They are capable of doing much good work. I have spoken to them about it & he approves, but asks on what terms they are sent.

The duty of supervising his men. Whatever became effect in this supervision would be his legitimate duty.
 It would be no use putting him on special duty - as this would withhold him from his men.

The other question raised by the Comr. is I suppose being separately dealt with.

Sent 2 - I think by telegram as to the number of to giving them charge of plague men I should have said. At present I believe thought 50 might be a British officer is bound to be sent with every detachment over 50 (or 60) -

Disinfectors will probably be reg'd at headquarters; the preventative depots may go there
 There will be enough work for 50 for the present.

sent. Ask the P.C. again (by wire if he has left Madras). If he still says 25, let him have that number. It is for him to decide.
