Madras.

SIR,

With reference to your Endorsement dated the 10th February 1899 on letter No 495 dated 5th February 1899, from the Collector of Coimbatore, I have the honour to state that if Mr Bartel's appointment counts from the 2nd February 1899, the day following that on the afternoon of which he reported himself to the Collector, the case may be treated as one of transfer, and the advance recovered in three equal instalments under article 137(b) of the Civil Account Code. Otherwise the payment is not covered by any rule, and the Collector must be held to have granted it on his own responsibility.

I have the honour to be,

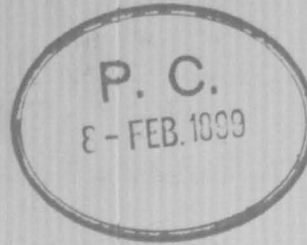

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Re. No. 495 of '99.
Rev

FROM

C. H. Mounsey, Esquire,
Acting Collector & DISTRICT MAGISTRATE OF COIMBATORE,

TO

The Plague Commissioner,
Madras.

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that I have, in anticipation of your approval, paid an advance of Rs 50 (Fifty) from Local funds to Mr. H. E. Bartels who has been recently appointed Plague Supervisor, in order to enable him to proceed to Hollegab promptly to enter on his duties.

2. He reported himself to me on on the afternoon of the 1st instant, and left on the 3rd instant for Hottogab. I am glad to say that he seemed in every way suitable and also knew personally Hottogab

Mysore city and that neighbourhood.

3. I trust you will approve of my action.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

MS
11/1

For Acting Collector and

District Magistrate

Forwarded to the Accountant General for favour of opinion as to the admissibility of the advance and the manner in which it should be received.
