ABSTRACT.—Submitting, with reference to paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 13 P., dated 4th January 1899, a revised draft of City Regulation No. 19, and enquiring whether Mufassal Regulation No. 28 should also be restricted to the classes of servants to whom, in Madras, the Government desires to apply section 282-A of the District Municipalities Act.

From L. E. BUCKLEY, Esq., I.C.S., Plague Commissioner, to the Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, dated Fort St. George, 18th April 1899, Ref. on C. No. 2567.

With reference to Official Memorandum, No. 48 P. of the 24th February last, I have the honour to state that I have consulted the District officers on the subject, with the following result.

2. The Collectors of South Arcot, South Canara, Chingleput, Kistna, Malabar, Nellore, the Nilgiris and Tanjore are of opinion that the application of Mufassal Regulation No. 28 should be restricted to those classes of servants to whom, in Madras, it has been proposed by the President, Municipal Commission, Madras, to apply section 282-A of the Madras District Municipalities Act. The Collectors of Vizagapatam and Trichinopoly consider that the provisions of the regulation should be applied only to purely menial servants. The Collector of Kurnool would include also nurses, cooks, inspectors, hospital assistants and compounders. The Collector of Gódávari proposes that the regulation should be extended to all servants on plague duty drawing less than Rs. 15 per mensem. The Collector of Tinnevelly fixes the limit at Rs. 10. The Collector of Bellary considers that the regulation should cover all employed on plague duty except those holding permanent appointments in Government service. The Collector of Coimbatore thinks it unnecessary to apply the regulation to those regularly employed in Provincial, Local Fund, or Municipal service above the rank of menials, while the rest (Collectors of Anantapur, North Arcot, Cuddapah, Ganjám, Madura and Salem) hold that no amendment is necessary, that it need not be restricted to any specified classes of servants and that it should cover all classes of servants on plague duty.

3. I consider that the original amendment proposed by Mr. Hammick may be accepted. The regulations as they will then stand may give more power than at present seems called for, but it is not necessary always to exercise such a power, and if it is curtailed, circumstances may arise to create regret that the power once existing has been removed.

4. I solicit the favour of very early orders, as the President, Municipal Commission, Madras, anticipates trouble with his scavengers in the near future.

ORDER—No. 604 P., dated 26th April 1899.

No. 19 of the City and No. 28 of the Mufassal Plague Regulations will be amended and the following notification published in the Fort St. George Gazette:—

2. No such maistri, peon, watchman, cooly or scavenger in the absence of a written contract authorizing him so to do, and without reasonable cause, shall resign his employment or absent himself from his duties without giving one month's notice to the President or neglect, or refuse to perform his duties or any of them.

Ref. on G. No. 209 with end^s

Note for L & M. Department.

Reference. Para 2 of G.O. No. 13P dated 4-1-99.

City Regulation 19 is the same as Mufassal Regulation 28 and is as follows:-

"28. No person employed, ~~to do duty in any capacity at a place set apart for~~ in view to do duty in any capacity at any place in connection with the accommodation, examination, isolation, detention or treatment of persons suffering, or suspected to be suffering from the plague or to be infectious, shall withdraw from the duties of his office without permission, or without having given one month's previous notice in writing to the officer under whom he is serving, or shall neglect or refuse to perform his duties or any of them."

In September last Mr. Hammick proposed to amend the Mufassal Regulation and his proposal was accepted by the Honourable Members of Government-vide Flag M. The amendment is shown above in red ink.

2. It will be seen that in principle these Regulations are the same as sub-section (2) of section 282-A of Madras Act IV of 1884 with these differences.

(a) the latter applies only to scavengers or those to whom it is specially applied under sub-section (3), while Regulation 28 applies to every body connected with plague. No - only those employed in connection with the accommodation, examination &c

(b) the penalty provided in Act IV of 1884 is only 2 months' ~~rigorous~~ imprisonment, while the penalty for breach of Regulations is 6 months. It is evident therefore that the

M

Regulations go much further than section 282 A of Act IV of 1884.

3. In para 4 of G. O. No.1264P, dated 7-10-98, Government sanctioned the recommendation that section 282 A should be extended to the City of Madras and called for a report as to what classes this section should be applied. The President, Municipal Commission, Madras was of opinion that peons, maistries, coolies and watchmen in charge of conservancy generally and plague hospitals and camps in particular should come within the scope of ~~this section~~ Regn 19. To carry out this proposal, the ~~section~~ regulation should be amended as follows:-

(1) "In the absence of a written contract to the contrary, every maistri, peon, watchman, cooly or scavenger employed by the President, Municipal Commission, to do duty in connection with plague or general sanitation shall be entitled to one month's notice before discharge or to one month's wages in lieu thereof, unless he is discharged for misconduct or was engaged for a specified term and discharged at the end of it.

(2) Should any such maistri, peon, watchman, cooly or scavenger in the absence of a written contract authorising him so to do, and without reasonable cause, resign his employment or absent himself from his duties without giving one month's notice to the President, or neglect or refuse to perform his duties or any of them, he shall be liable to imprisonment which may extend to 2 months."

4. Mr. Hammick thought that as the principle of Regulation 19 & section 282A was the same, a single draft embodying both would do. Objection is taken to this Draft

Regulation on the ground that it is too wide as it proposes to apply the provision of sub-section(1) to every person whatever may be his salary or rank instead of restricting them to the classes of servants mentioned by the President, Municipal Commission, Madras. Mr. Hammick reproduced the provisions of the existing Mufassal Regulation 28. Reference to sub-section (1) in the G.O. seems to be a mistake for sub-section(2). The undersigned, ~~illegible~~, begs to be informed whether Mufassal Regulation 28 should be restricted to the classes to whom in Madras the Government desires to apply section 282A.

Elwin considers that three more (as the staff had not reached Chipplegirie) had not been employed to do duty at a place set apart. The place had not been set apart — he did not therefore prosecute the toties who bolted — I am doubtful if he could not have prosecuted successfully. If you think it is doubtful, the rule might be amended, and run perhaps thus — "no person employed in or to do duty in any capacity at any place in connection with the accommodation, examination etc" This would make it plain. I will not object to the amendment of Reg: 28, page 21 of the book, which Hon. Members desire. But, I am sure it will be necessary to use great discretion and caution in working the amended Regulation. Otherwise, I fear we may put a stop altogether to the enlistment of men for work of this kind

The Hon. Sir H. Bliss fears that unless the Reg: is amended, the ambulance staffs may at any moment become disorganized. The people seem to dread and dislike this kind of work so much, that disorganization may occur at any time. What I fear is that if great severity is used, the ambulance staffs may disappear altogether. These men must be treated very judiciously; otherwise, it will be impossible to get them to engage, or, if once engaged to prevent them from bolting en masse

The Secretary to Government,

Local & Municipal Department.

SIR,

With reference to O.M.No.48P. of the 24th February last, I have the honour to state that I have consulted the District Officers on the subject, with the following result:-

2. The Collectors of South Arcot, South Canara, Chingleput, Kistna, Malabar, Nellore, the Nilgiris and Tanjore are of opinion that the application of Mufassal Regulation No.28 should be restricted to those classes of servants to whom in Madras, it has been proposed by the President, Municipal Commission, Madras, to apply Section 282 A of the Madras District Municipalities Act. The Collectors of Vizagapatam & Trichinopoly consider that the provisions of the Regulation should be applied only to purely menial servants. The Collector of Kurnool would include also nurses, cooks, inspectors, Hospital Assistants and Compounders. The Collector of Godavari proposes that the Regulation should be extended to all servants on plague duty drawing less than Rs.15 per mensem. The Collector of Tinnevelly fixes the limit at Rs.10. The Regulations as they will then stand may give more power than at present seems called for, but it is not necessary always to exercise such a power, and if it is curtailed circumstances may arise to create regret that the power once existing has been removed.

SUBJECT.- Amendment of City Regn. 19 and Mufassal Regulation 28.

For Orders.

In September last, Mr. Hammick proposed that Mufassal Regn. 28 might be amended by the substitution of the words "in view to duty in any capacity at any place in connection with" for the words "to do duty in any capacity at a place set apart for". The amendment is shown in red ink in the Regn. extracted below:

" 28- No person employed ~~to duty in any capacity at a place set apart for~~ in view to do duty in any capacity at any place in connection with the accommodation, examination, isolation, detention, or treatment of persons suffering, or suspected to be suffering, from the plague or to be infectious, shall withdraw from the duties of his office without permission, or without having given one month's previous notice in writing to the Officer under whom he is serving or shall neglect or refuse to perform his duties or any of them".

This proposal was accepted by the Hon'ble members of Government - Vide flag M .

2. In submitting a scheme for the defence of the City of Madras against plague, the President stated that he "should have power over scavengers and all Sanitary staff up to, say, a class receiving a pay of Rs 15/- a month in the manner provided in Sec. 283-A (2) and (3), of the Madras District Municipalities Act".

Para 1(3) of President's letter on page 2 of fd. 1264 dt 7.1058 N

3. In para 4. of G. O. 1264-P, dated 7th October 1898, it was ordered

(1) that Mufassal Regn. 28 should be amend-ed as suggested by the Plague Commissioner ( Vide para 1.Supra)

(2) that City Regn. 19 should also be amended like Mufassal Regulation 28, and that Sec. 283-A of the District Municipalities Act should be extended to the City, the President being asked to report to what classes of Municipal servants the section should be applied;

and the Plague Commissioner who was requested to prepare and submit a draft of the Regns. and notifications necessary for giving effect to this order —

(1) submitted a single draft Regn. embodying therein the provisions of the City Regn. 19, amended as indicated in para 1. supra, and of section 282-A of the District Municipalities Act, and also bringing within its scope every person employed in connection with plague or with conservancy generally, while the existing Regn. applies only to persons employed to do duty in connection with the several purposes therein mentioned(Viz. the accommodation, examination, isolation, detention, or treatment of persons suffering or suspected to be suffering from the plague or to be infectious ) and

(2) recommended the adoption of the same draft for Mufassal Regn.28.

The draft is extracted below for easy reference:-

"19. In the absence of a written contract to the contrary, every person employed in view to do duty in any capacity at any place in con-nection with plague or with conservancy generally shall be entitled to one month's notice before discharge or to one month's wages in lieu thereof, unless he is discharged for misconduct or was engaged for a specified term and discharged at the end of it.

No such person shall, in the absence of a written contract authorising him so to do, and without reasonable cause, resign his employment, or withdraw from the duties of his office without permission, or without having given one month's previous notice in writing to the Officer under whom he is serving, or shall neglect or refuse to perform his duties or any of them".

4. In G. O. No.15-P dated 4th Jan.99, objection was taken to the above draft for the reason that it proposed to apply the provisions of Sec.283-A of the District Municipalities Act to every person, whatever might be his salary or rank, employed in view to do duty in connection with the plague and was thus too wide. It was also pointed out that the President had reported that it would be sufficient to extend the provisions of Sec. 283-A to certain classes of servants only, Viz. peons, maistries, coolies, and watchmen in charge of conservancy generally, and plague hospitals and camps in particular. The Plague Commissioner was accordingly requested to revise the draft in the light of the foregoing remarks.

5. We now

(1) submits a revised draft, which is extracted below, of ~~the~~ City Regn.19 so as to bring within its scope only the classes of servants to whom the President, Municipal Commission considered it necessary to apply the provisions of Sec.282-A of the District Municipalities Act, and

(2) enquires whether Mufassal Regn.28 should also be restricted to the classes to whom, in Madras, the revised draft City Regn. 19 would apply.

EXTRACT.- "In the absence of a written contract to the contrary, every maistry, peon, watchman, cooly, or scavenger employed by the [President, Municipal Commission,] to do duty in connection with plague [or general sanitation] shall be entitled to one month's notice before discharge, or to one month's wages in lieu thereof, unless he is discharged for mis-conduct or was engaged for a specified term and discharged at the end of it.

(2) ~~Should any~~ No such maistri, peon, watchman, cooly or scavenger in the absence of a written contract authorising him so to do, and without reasonable cause, shall resign his employment or absent himself from his duties without giving one month's notice [to the President,] or neglect or refuse to perform his duties or any of them, ~~shall be liable to imprisonment which may extend to two months~~".

6. Orders have to be passed on two points:-

(1) Regarding the adoption of the revised draft of City Regn. 19, and

(2) Regarding the classes of servants to whom the revised Mufassal Regn. 28 should apply.

As regards (1) It is submitted that the City Regulation 19, as it stands at present, applies to every body, employed in connection with the accommodation, examination, isolation detention, or treatment of persons suffering or suspected to be suffering from the plague or to be infectious. The draft of the Regn. as first revised by the Plague Commissioner with reference to G.O. 1264, dated 7th Oct.98, would apply to every body employed in view to do duty in any capacity at any place in connection with the plague or with conservancy generally. The revised draft now submitted by the Plague Commissioner, while restricting its application, as required by G. O. No.13-P, dated 4th Jan.99 to the classes of servants mentioned by the President, who may be employed to do duty in connection with plague or general sanitation, also provides a penalty for a breach of the obligations thereby imposed, while neither the existing Regn. nor the original draft provides such a penalty. ~~for a breach of the duties thereby imposed~~. The penalty provided in the draft Regn. now submitted is imprisonment which may extend to two months, while under Sec. 3 of the Epidemic Diseases Act, disobedience to any plague Regulation is punishable under Sec.188 of the Indian Penal Code, i.e. with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to 1,000 Rs. or with both. It seems, however, unnecessary to insert a penal clause in the regulation, as there is a general provision in the Epidemic Diseases Act for dealing with disobedience to any regulation or order made thereunder.

As regards (2) It is submitted that the Plague Commissioner may be asked to give his

I agree WT 25.2.99
Vide the two drafts attached to the note
WT 25.2.99

(1) It is submitted that as regards the City regulation - the draft here amended will do - if para (2) is ~~omitted~~ - The enjoinment of a penalty is unnecessary - as the offence is punishable under the Act - This will be met by the amended para (2)

(2) As to Mofussil, it is submitted that the same amendment will do as amended as follows.

viz - omit the words "President Municipal Commission" & "or general sanitation" This will give powers to Corpn. over all the menial servants - viz "maistry - peon, watchmen, scavengers -". Top do not want to bring others under the act - And Should of course the Reg 28 applies to medical officers etc which is hardly necessary - tho' as Mr. Buckley says the powers granted are not likely to be abused - but they may be.

Submitted that for Mofussil Reg. 28 the amended Reg" shown here may be - and the same Regn take the place of City Reg 19. WT 24 to 99
