Plague Commissioner's Office,

FORT ST. GEORGE,

189 .

From

L. E. BUCKLEY, Esq., I.C.S.,

PLAGUE COMMISSIONER,

To

SIR,

In reply to your letter of 187 2/23 July 1899 I have to say that I cannot give you a very definite answer at the present moment. There is no doubt that the position is improving in known & parts of Anantapur & Belary, & I trust that it may be possible in a couple of weeks to set free some of the doctors employed in these districts. If you require men really worthy to Pye & Kappan, & Dr. Viree Telu at Hons might possibly be found, but I should very much prefer, if possible, to keep them where they are for a short time longer, & in any case before removing them
 I should like to consult the District

Yours.
