READ—

The following letter from the Chairman, Municipal Council, Tiruvannamalai, dated 19th April 1899
No. 8/P :-

As plague is diminishing at Vellore I have the honour to propose that the services of the nurse (on Rs 100) employed at the plague camp in this town may be dispensed with from the 1st May next. She has had no work here since her entertainment. A nurse can be entertained as soon as a case of plague arises. I request that the sanction of the Plague Commissioner may be applied for the same.

Endorsement thereon of the Collector of South Arcot, dated 22nd April 1899, Ref. on C. No. 177/Eng:-

Forwarded to the Plague Commissioner and recommended.
As the nurse has no work whatever at present, her retention, which costs the Municipality Rs. 100 a month and is rather heavy considering the finances of the Council, does not appear absolutely necessary. As one can be appointed whenever required, the services of the nurse may be dispensed with as proposed by the Sub-Collector.
