No. 2671-P.—The following Summary of Plague Operations in Bombay City during the week ending the 8th April 1899 is published for information :—

During the week under report the total mortality, as recorded at the Cemeteries, fell to 1,747, or a reduction of 474 on the figures of the previous week. Of these deaths only 86 were not traceable in the town. Plague deaths, including suspicious ones, numbered 1,006, whilst deaths from measles numbered 86, leaving 655 due to ordinary causes against an average of 582. No serious increase in the death-rate occurred in any section of the City, and a very great improvement took place in Khāra Talāv, Khetvādi, Girgaon, Māzagaon, Kāmāthipura and Byculla, and a considerable improvement in Māndvi and Parel.

The population in the City at the end of the week was estimated at about 7,40,000. The excess of departures over arrivals was about 6,310 against 12,331, 15,535, 17,000 and 25,000 in the previous weeks.

There is a reduction in the number of admissions for plague in nearly all the Hospitals. The number of cases of relapsing fever continue about the same. The mortality from plague is of the same percentage as last week. Medical Officers inform me that the disease is not quite so virulent in the early stages and cases live longer. There is a large increase of cases of small-pox at the Arthur Road Hospital.
