Plague Commissioner's Office,
Madras, 4th January 1899.

No. 7.

From

L. E. Buckley, Esquire., I. C. S.,

Plague Commissioner,
Madras.

To

The Sanitary Commissioner for Madras,

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to approve of the proposal made in your letter No 3166/S, dated 20-12-98 to train additional temporary Sanitary Inspectors for Plague work.

2. As to the terms to be offered I shall be obliged if you will kindly quote the authority to which you refer in paragraph 2 of your letter under reply, as I am unable to trace it. I am not in a position to know if the supply of men for Circle Inspectors' posts is likely to exceed the demand for them. It is trusted that ~~as~~ with the advent of the hot weather the demand for such men may cease. If the supply is likely to exceed the demand it should be made clear to the candidates that concessions will be granted not to all who pass the examination, but only to such a number of those at the head of the list as is actually required at the time of examination.

3. The following telephone message has been despatched to you-
"Please arrange train Sanitary Inspectors. Await my letter
"before promising half pay during training."

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

L. E. Buckley

for Plague Commissioner.

Copy to Secretary to Govt. of Madras, Health & Sanitation Dept.

Enclosure to letter No.7, dated 4-1-99.

Copy of letter No.3166/S, dated camp Gooty, 20th December 1898 from the Sanitary Commissioner for Madras.

"I have the honour to inform you that the supply of Temporary Sanitary Inspectors is now exhausted. It is, therefore, necessary that I at once proceed to assemble another class for training fresh men. It is unnecessary to fix any specific number, as it would be desirable I should train all I can get as successive efforts to train imply a great tax on my time; it can be explained to candidates that their chance of employment will depend upon continuance of Plague, and that those who pass high in the list will be given appointments prior to those who occupy a lower position.

2. I request sanction for allowing candidates the usual terms, namely, to those who pass the examination successfully half pay without allowances during the period actually spent under training to be recovered on first appointment to a district.
