The Plague Deputy Collector

Guntakal

Sir,

I beg to submit for your kind consideration the circumstances of the Madiga families at Gooty who in a few hours after the suggestion was made to them evacuated their houses and removed to the fields. Rev. Mr. Nicholson of the London Mission states in the enclosed letter that owing to the delay in giving them materials (palymara leaves and posts and branches of Babool trees), they were obliged to borrow money for the purchase of materials used for their sheds. I in my arji No. 8 of 25.1.99 requested permission to apply to these Madiga families in number the concession granted to the Kuruba and Uppara families. The order approving my suggestion was received on 7th February 1899. and duly communi-cated to them. A few days before the receipt of this Order, I personally re-quested the collector to authorize me to give materials to the Inadiga families and it was granted, but even this was too late as they had already put up huts.

These people are all living from hand to mouth. I do not think that they had their own money with which they purchased the materials. They must have run in for debts. With the present plague scare they find it difficult to earn their daily bread and it would be impossible therefore to lay by any portion of their earnings to liquidate their debts. They therefore suggest that a sum of Rupees 3 to each of the 65 Madiga families may be granted. (the 65 families being well to do)

I beg you missioners letter 296 dated 31 January 1899.

I have sanctioned a sum Rs 3 to each of the 64 Madega families, in anticipation of your sanction.

3. As the Talisildar says, they are very poor and have constructed sheds by contracting debts.
