Dated 21st April 1899.

From M.R. N. V. Rangachari, Chairman, Municipal Council, Vellore

To The Collector of Vellore

Sir, With reference to your endorsement Ref No. 182nd dated 15th April 1899 on the Plague Commissioner's Proceedings Ref No. 3806 dated 10th April 1899, I have the honour to forward herewith for sanction a revised statement of Plague establishment showing the actual period that they have served and the actual amount required therefor.

2. The Hospital Assistant in charge of Branch Dispensary who is paid by the Government 1/8 of his salary and allowance was put in charge of the Plague Hospital the Branch Dispensary having been closed and therefore only 1/8 of his pay and allowance was shown in the original list; but it was subsequently found that he should be paid the whole of his salary and allowance from the Plague allotment. So provision was made accordingly.

3. The variations in the rates of salary for ward attendant and the watermen and the cooks is due to much difficulty in securing persons at the rates provided in the original list.

4. One Sweeper was also entertained but not shown in the original list through oversight - hence this new item.

5. The services of the Hospital Assistant, Singaravelmudali were dispensed with from the 18th instant.

I have the honor to Sd, N.V. Pampachari.
