SIR,

The services of Mrs M. H. Turner, one of the nurses attached to the 2nd Ambulance staff formed in this District were placed temporarily at the disposal of the Vellore Municipal Council for plague duty in that Municipality as her services were not urgently required for rural tracts. Mrs Turner has to travel about a great deal in her new capacity and she therefore applies to me for a conveyance allowance of Rs 25 per month. The Sub-Collector thinks that the grant of the allowance is absolutely necessary. Similar allowances have been recommended by you in the
