Sir, I have the honor to enclose copy of a letter received from Mr. C. L. Williams of Coimbatore for such action as you may deem necessary. I have the honor to permit Mr. Williams to Encd. I. I have the honor to get out of the carriage as soon as the door was opened and I stopped a while to collect my kit and as I have never seen him since I have in the meanwhile been very busy. The thing has escaped my memory. I do not know what happened but I bring to your notice the fact that a man ordered to remain at Arkanam can get away any how as far as Coimbatore. Had he not carefully avoided me in Coimbatore station I should have noticed him when I had collected my kit and handed him up. Mr. Dequorn urged him to stop behind. warned him of the consequences

- and declined to be responsible for his actions. I do not think he could have escaped without a pretty heavy bribe to the Policeman at Arkanam and whether he was caught by Dequorn in Coimbatore

Office of the District Medical & Sanitary Officer Cannabara
Date 22-10-99

My dear Taylor, I left here on the 13th by the mail for Maoras and reached there on the morning of the 14th passing Aramam about 6 am there the personal servant, a Malayali called Sarguam of Calicut who was travelling in the same compartment with me informed his master in my presence that in his compartment a man with fever had been found and stopped and he and the other contacts were to be kept behind too. However, just as the train started he reappeared and slipped into the first class carriage sitting by the door in the corridor. I looked at his ticket but it was only punched in the ordinary way and consequently at Cannabara he was not stopped. I purposely refrained from doing anything then as I thought it an excellent opportunity of seeing how the plague regulations can be evaded and waited till Maoras to see if his absence would be detected and a telegram sent to Maoras to catch him on arrival. Unfortunately at Maoras he got out of the carriage as soon as the door was opened and I stopped a while to collect my
kit and as I have never seen him since I
get away any how as far as Maoras. Had he not carefully avoided me in Maoras station I should have noticed him when I had collected my kit and handed him up. Mr Sarguam urged him to stop behind. warned him of the consequences
- and declined to be responsible for his actions. I do
heavy ~~fine~~ bribe to the Policeman at Arkanam and whether he was caught by telegram in Maoras

Sir,
 With reference to your Ref. on Car no 1781, dated 1-5-99, I have the honor to inform you that the fault lies on the Police.
 An European Head Constable is placed in charge of 15 Constables.
 He himself gives leave to some of the Constables, consequently the number of Constables to supervise the work is generally diminished and the work naturally suffers. Moreover it is only after the posting of this European Head Constable here, that such complaints are being brought to notice constantly. Some instances of bribery have been reported
