Grant of exemption from the passport rules to certain members of the Railway Police.

FOR ORDERS.

The Assistant Inspector General of Police forwarded to the P.C. a letter addressed to him by Police Inspector Jay Singh on the subject of exempting him & his staff from the ordinary passport rules, and the Plague Commr. requested the Asst. Inspr. Genl. to report under whom Inspr. Jay Singh & his staff worked directly & whether their absence from duty would be immediately known to a superior officer who would be responsible for reporting their absence on account of sickness. Similar information was also called for from the

Meanwhile the Supdt. of Railway Police requested the P.C to exempt him & his travelling staff from the passport rules & forwarded a list of persons who shd. be excluded from the operation of the passport rules, & in replying to his letter the P.C stated that the concession would be granted to his staff only when they are mustered or inspected daily by an officer of responsible position & requested the Supdt. to propose any satisfactory system of inspection. The Supdt. has now replied to the P. C's Reference.

2. Reply has been received from The D.G. Insp.r Genl. of Northern Range to P. M. R. Inspector & that P. C's ref: on the subject was transferred to the Supdt. for disposal. The name of the S. M. R. Insp.r is not, however, found in the list forwarded by the Supdt. with his previous letter, nor is any mention made of him (Insp.r) in his present letter, in which he states that if 61 passports be supplied to him, he would take care that they are properly used, without mentioning the names of individuals.

Sir,

The Deputy Inspector General of the Railway Police Northern Range requests that the Railway Inspector Southern Mahratta Railway may be exempted from the ordinary passport rules while travelling through this District — vide his correspondence enclosed.

2. Evidently the Railway Inspector has not been inoculated. The Plague Commissioner's Proceedings No. 16/2 dated 5th January 1899 authorizing Collectors to exempt certain specified classes of Railway and Postal Servants does not, I think, extend to cases like the present though very similar, nor does Additional Regulation 30 which applies only to persons with regard to whom there are no reasonable grounds for suspicion of inspection, cover the present case. I have therefore the honour to request early instructions in the matter.

Requesting to be favoured with exemption certificates for himself and for Railway Police travelling staff.

If your men are not mustered by a responsible officer daily, it is not impossible that they may attempt to conceal the first symptoms they may experience of disease, & so much time before their sickness is discovered. Inspector of Railway Police
C Div.

If your men are not mustered by a responsible officer daily, it is not improbable that they may attempt to conceal the first symptoms they may experience of disease, & so much time before their sickness is discovered. I should be glad to hear if you can propose any satisfactory system for mustering or inspection.

SIR,

I have the honor to reply to your letter no. P.C. 4279 dated 3rd May 1899.

Enclosures.

The Police Station House Officer is under the rules one of the properly responsible Officers to whom persons holding passports shall report themselves daily for 10 days. But the Head Constables of the travelling staff are themselves Station House Officers and if they are obliged to comply in the usual way they can presumably sign their own passports. The Inspector is his superior officer, yet under the rules he might have to report himself to his own subordinate.

As for daily meeting and inspection the Station House Officer sees his men almost every day.

I think it will be much the best to let the men have passports; the greatest care will be taken and the assurance will be better by far than in fulfilling the rules which may be fulfilled and yet which would cover no protection. Kindly let me have my passport. For the Inspectors too, I hope; for if the Station House Officer is a properly responsible Officer, sure the Inspector is!
