Plague Supervisors.

Informing, with remarks, the Collector of South Canara of what the pay and allowances of — appointed in municipal towns are, when deputed from existing establishments, and what they are when they do not hold any permanent appointments.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE PLAGUE COMMISSIONER.

READ—the following paper:—

From A. F. PINHEY, Esq., Acting Collector of South Canara, to the Plague Commissioner, Madras, dated Mangalore, 12th December 1898, Ref. on C. No. 1832-Eng.

With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 1023 P., dated 7th September 1898, I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to inform me what pay and allowances may be allowed to Government servants appointed as supervisors for circles in municipalities as I feel a doubt whether the scale of pay and allowances prescribed in G.O., No. 1359 P., dated 22nd October 1898, for plague supervisors in the mofussil for charge of divisions applies to these. There is no immediate necessity to entertain supervisors in this municipality; but should occasion arise I shall have to advertise for men stating the terms.

LETTER, No. 1013.

From

L. E. BUCKLEY, ESQ., I.C.S.,
PLAGUE COMMISSIONER,

To

THE COLLECTOR OF SOUTH CANARA.

SIR,

In reply to your letter, Ref. on C. No. 1832-Eng., dated 12th December 1898, I have the honour to state that plague supervisors appointed in municipal towns may, if deputed from existing establishments, be given an additional allowance not exceeding 25 per cent. of their salary + Rs. 15 horse allowance, or, if they do not hold any permanent appointments, Rs. 2 a day + Rs. 15 horse allowance. It should be noted that such supervisors should usually be either Europeans or Eurasians and that they need not be employed unless the outbreak of plague requires a special organization to deal with it. For the present, no such supervisors seem necessary in any municipality in your district.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for Plague Commissioner.
