My dear Novel

I return your papers

There certainly seems reason to suspect that rats are being bred for export. I don't know you are going to find a head; 3 pins on the forehead is at the maximum (see Kharmin's no. 5 2. 19. in 92). Perhaps the high rats have something to do with it. I saw in the paper the other day (I cannot find my head on it) that only 115,000 rats had been killed in Bombay. That they give only 1 pound a dozen. In the process of ~~applying~~ it was reported that nothing had been needed to ~~bring~~ ~~bring~~ ~~bring~~ places & railroads foods etc - ~~to bring this country~~

 Wonder you think the War on rats might be tried for a time (I think it is scarcely pay to breed them at that rate) I'd be inclined to introduce the
