Extract from Revised Regulation 3A, published under Notification No. 1290, dated 25th July 1898:—

3A. Every person arriving from any place declared to be infected shall be liable to daily observation for ten days next after arrival by the local authority of the Town or village where he may be.

Explanation.—By a "local authority" is meant any of the following officers:—

- The Local Medical Officer;
- The Station House Officer;
- The Patel of the village.

In places where there is more than one local authority the duties prescribed in these rules shall be performed by or with the permission of the Deputy Commissioner under the orders of the Officer who stands first in the order given in this explanation.

iv. Every person arriving from a plague-infected place shall declare truly his name, address, and such other particulars as may be required by the Officer issuing the Notice and shall report forthwith to the local authority mentioned in the Notice any change in his residence occurring within ten days from the date of arrival.

vii. It is open to any Local Medical Officer or officer higher than a Station House Officer or Patel to change an Observation Notice which provides for a person presenting himself before a local authority for observation into a Notice under which he shall be observed at his own residence. When the Notice is so changed, the officer changing it shall note the fact on the Notice and sign such note and give the designation of his office.

Any person disobeying or contravening or refusing to submit himself to any Regulation made under the Epidemic Diseases Regulation, 1897, or obstructing any measure which has been taken by Government, or which any authority or officer appointed under competent authority to carry out such Regulation has been empowered or required to take under any such Regulation, shall be deemed to have committed an offence under Section 188 of the Indian Penal Code, and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to six months or fine which may extend to Rs. 1,000 or both.
