Sir

I beg to bring to your notice the following few lines for your favourable consideration and recommendation to the Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras.

2. This place being situated far away from the Railway, all the articles of provisions are dear, an allowance of Rs 10 is given to all Hospital Assistants serving in Madras to compensate the extra expense incurred on account of dearth of provisions besides plague allowance + this place seems to be more costly than Madras + I therefore beg that some allowance or other may be given to me to meet the extra expenditure, as long as I stay here whether actually engaged on plague duty or not considering the expense

SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

160 2 papers

In returning the file of Correspondence about the grant of certain allowances to the Hospital assistant on Plague duty at Wellington, forwarded with your endorsement Ref. on current no. 4676 dated 8 May 99. I have the honour to report that the Hospital assistant was posted under Surgeon General's orders for plague duty at the Wellington Cantonment where a case of plague of plague occurred on the 23rd January last, on application from the District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Coonoor.

2. As regards the allowances to be granted to him, I have the honour to forward, herewith

Copies of letter no 968 dated 10th February 99, ^{from the Cantonment Magistrate,} and this office reply dated 21st February 99, Ref. on C.O. 14 P 99 on the subject, for your information. The other hospital assistants on plague duty in the Nilgiri Plateau were allowed to draw Rs 5 for warm clothing and Rs 5 as local allowance, but no house rent allowance was granted to them as they had free quarters.

I think that similar allowances may be sanctioned in this case also. As regards the claim to house rent, the hospital assistant was, during most of the time he was at Wellington, ~~he~~ living in the plague camp in attendance on the patient and he could have, had he chosen, remained there after the patient was discharged. I do not consider he is entitled to house rent.

3. This hospital Assistant was not shown in this office plague establishment list, as his pay and allowances are debtible to Cantonment funds and is therefore not included in the plague estimates in which the establishment list bears.

I have the honour to be
Sir,

Your most obedient servant
