stituted, comprises the marginally-noted eight hamlets. Of these, hamlets Nos. 5, 6, 7 and 8 are far removed from the cusba being situated 4, 3, 2 and $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles off Pattukkóttai town. In Karugavayal, there are about 100 houses but they lie scattered in groups of four and five. In the other three hamlets, there are on the whole twenty houses paying a house-tax of Rs. 5. These four hamlets practically receive no benefit from the union expenditure. Besides, hamlets Nos. 5 and 6 are cut off from Pattukkóttai town by unbridged jungle-streams.

2. The Taluk Board therefore resolved that these hamlets might be excluded from the union limits—vide copy of their proceedings, No. 2, dated 9th December 1898, enclosed.

3. The retention within the union limits of hamlet No. 8, Poolanganni (which is only a portion of the revenue village of Pannavarayankóttai), being incorrect under G.O., No. 1274 L., dated 4th July 1887, the District Board approved of the Taluk Board's proposal to exclude it therefrom. But as the same order does not permit exclusion of the other three hamlets (since these with the first four hamlets constitute the entire revenue village of Pattukkóttai) they have resolved to exempt these three from the payment of all taxes leviable under the Act—vide their resolution, No. 12, dated 25th February 1899, copy enclosed. I have therefore the honour to request that Government be pleased to approve of the Taluk Board's proposal as modified by the District Board and order the publication of the enclosed notifications in the Fort St. George Gazette.

ENCLOSURES.

EXTRACT from the Proceedings of the Taluk Board of Pattukkóttai, dated 9th December 1898.

Read Mahazar, dated 8th November 1897, from the villagers of Kottagudi attached to the Pattukkóttai Union praying to exclude their village from the union limits and the reports of the Tahsildar and the Chairman thereon suggesting that this and three more villages might be excluded from the union as well as the President's note thereon.

Resolution No. 2.—The exclusion of the following villages, viz., Karugavayal otherwise called Kottagudi, Paingathivayal, Nainangulam and Poolanganni, from the Pattukkóttai Union is sanctioned from the next year. No additional villages need be included as suggested by the villagers of Kottagudi.

EXTRACT from the Proceedings of the District Board of Tanjore, dated 25th February 1899.

Read letter from the President, Taluk Board, Pattukkóttai, No. 722, dated 31st December 1898, submitting proposals for the exclusion of certain villages from the limits of Pattukkóttai Union.

Resolution No. 12.—The Board recommends that Poolanganni village be excluded from the union and that Karugavayal, Paingathivayal and Nainangulam, hamlets of Pattukkóttai Vattam, be exempted from payment of union taxes.

ORDER—No. 854 L., dated 22nd April 1899.

The District Board's proposals are approved and the following notifications will be published in the Fort St. George and the Tanjore District Gazettes :—

NOTIFICATIONS.

Under section 6 of the Madras Local Boards Act V of 1884 and in modification of notification No. 125, published at page 151 of Part I-A of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 5th May 1886, so far as it relates to the Pattukkóttai union, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to exclude from the said union the hamlet of Poolanganni attached to Pannavarayankóttai Vattam.

Under section 63 of the Madras Local Boards Act V of 1884, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to exempt the hamlets of Karugavayal otherwise called Kottagudi, Paingathivayal and Nainangulam included in the Pattukkóttai union in the Tanjore district from payment of all taxes leviable under the Act.
