Note for the Local and Municipal Department:-

Mr. Hammick originally meant the Sepoys to remain at Jalarpet a fortnight or so, till excitement calmed down. (See office note of 21.10.28 flag A: disposed of in G.O. ¹³⁶⁸ 25.10.28.

In his proceedings of 27.10.28 Ref. No. C.R. 785, he seems to have wished the troops to remain on more or less police duty.

I was on tour in December & I visited Jalarpet just before Christmas. The status of the Sepoys seemed to me doubtful and I wished to know the authority under which the Sepoys were kept there. I was referred to Mr. Hammick's order just quoted. This was communicated to Government.

I then asked

2
Salem if the detachment could not be dispensed with or turned on to disinfection work somewhere.
(please see my letter of 5th Jan.) He replies (please see his letter 80/^{plague} dated 10th January 1899.
"It was intended that the Sepoy guard should be kept at Jalarpet in lieu of police".

* * * I do not advocate dispensing with the Sepoy guard, unless a strong police guard is provided, which this District cannot furnish.
On this I have not passed orders but my note of 12th was seen by you on 26th.

I agree that the Sepoys are now on police work, and not called out to assist the Civil power.
Their position appeared to me to be anomalous

at once, but as they were there with the knowledge of Government, and without any one raising any objection (as far as I then knew) I hesitated to raise the question, knowing police were not available. The work that the Sepoys are doing should be done by the police and the Inspector-General should be asked to furnish the men wanted.
What number is required
I cannot say on the spot, Jalarpet is very differently situated to Tungabadda while the Hindupur and Arkonam camps are comparatively small. Hospet is the best to compare with but what is sufficient for Hospet will probably be not enough for Jalarpet. The Collector may be asked. The Hospet staff of police is not known accurately but is believed to be
13. (H.L.) S. B.

The Plague Commissioner is requested to consult the Inspector General of Police and report his views as soon as possible.

Sir

There is a Sepoy guard at the Jalarpet Plague Camp.
The military authorities raise objections to the guard remaining there any longer, on the ground that they are really performing police duties. The objection appears to be a valid one, but the troops cannot well be allowed to return to Bangalore, until their place can be taken by police.
The Collector of Salem states that the necessary police cannot be furnished in the district. I have the honor therefore to ask you if you can do any way furnish the necessary guard. The number of police required is not known, but the Collector has been requested to report, it will probably be about 20, judging from the number employed at Hoospet.

Copy to the Collector of Salem with the request that he will report urgently what number of police men are required to replace the military guard at Jalarpet.
The Inspector General of Police states that there are 24 policemen on duty at this station.
