PLAGUE COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

(1899)

For orders

The Commr says he cannot do so on the strength of para 24 of G.O. No 1153. But this para sanctions only 1/5 of the salary of a person in the second place does not apply to midwives or nurses. It seems that the excess should be recovered.

To

Plague
The Secretary to the Commissioner of Madras

MADRAS.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of letter No 1915-1916 from the Dist Medical and Sanitary Officer Guntakul & to state that the native midwife of Penukonda was ordered to be given an allowance of Rs 10/- per mensem in anticipation of your sanction on the strength of para 2 (b) of G.O. No 1153 as she was transferred to Hindupur to do duty there.

A deputation allowance of 1/5th of her salary (which comes to Rs 3/-) was sanctioned in your Proceedings No 504 on my Report No 526 requesting sanction for an allowance of Rs 10/-. According to this order Rs 7/- will have to be recovered from the midwife, and this, I think will be hard now in her case.

I therefore recommend that she may be allowed an allowance of Rs 10/ per mensem, considering the nature of the work she had to do outside her head quarters. She is not now on plague duty.

I have the honor to be,
Sir

Your most obedient servant

Sir In reply to your disno. 297
3.3.99
Communicating Plague Commissioner's Proc. No. 504 of 23rd ultimo, about the plague allowance to Penukunda Hindupur I have the honor to state that you have sanctioned Rs 10 as per cl. 1 para 2(a) of G.O. No. 1153 of 23.7.98 in your D.C. 526 of 28.11.98 and that you have addressed the Plague Commissioner to sanction the same.
The sum was paid already at Rs 10⁰⁰ per mensem, from the date of deputation for plague work. Now from the order under reference only 1/5th of her salary has been sanctioned both by the Plague Commissioner and Surgeon-General. In this case and if this order is to come in force the excess amount she was paid at Rs 7 should be recovered from her, which I think does not appear reasonable, if her case is taken into proper consideration
