Forwarded in original to the Collector of Kurnool who is requested to report what additional force he considers necessary. The Staff of 4 Head Constables and 42 constables at Maddikera can probably be reduced.

If the evacuation of the infected quarter is insisted on, as advised, a much smaller force should suffice to prevent people from returning to the village.

Kurnool Collector's office

From

To
The Plague Commissioner,
Madras.

Sir,

In returning herewith your Endorsement No. 2755 d/4-3-99 and the papers received therewith, I have the honour to state that many of the Policemen, viz, 4 Head Constables and 42 Constables originally sent by the Superintendent of Police to Maddikera have since been distributed to the villages of Pattikonda, Alardinne, Dudikonda, and Jugagulla which have become infected. Plague prevails still at Maddikera, but there have been no cases at all for the last 10 days in any of the other ~~vill~~ villages above named except one death at Alardinne fields on the 2nd Instant. The disease has, however, recently broken out in Peravali 4 miles from Juggalli, and there have been 4 seizures and 4 deaths there since 28th Ultimo. Under the existing circumstances, I think the following

Staff

staff is necessary.

Purpose.	Hd Cons.	Constables.
For the 6 Hyderabad Road Frontier Inspection Stations at 2 Constables for each.	"	12
For the Kurnool Road Railway Inspection Station.	1	6

Maddikera is a very large village and Plague still exists in it; hence the necessity for one Head Constable and 12 Constables. A similar force seems also necessary for Peravali where Plague has lately broken out and where vigorous measures are being taken to prevent its further development. In each of the other villages mentioned above 2 constables are sufficient to prevent the surreptitious access of people to their houses in these small villages. Pattikonda however, is a much larger village and the Head Quarter of the Taluq, and I think it necessary that 6 men should be stationed there. The 12 men proposed for the last mentioned four villages will be withdrawn, if no fresh cases occur in them for 4 weeks more.

Sir,
