SIR,

In acknowledging receipt of your Proceedings No 665 dated 9th March 1895 I have the honor to point out that they convey no regret at having made use of this in relation contained in your telegram of the 10th February 95 that I was personally responsible for the absurd order referred to by Messrs Parry and Co. whose information alone rested upon no better authority than the word of a native subordinate of the firm.

I have the honor to be
