READ—the following paper:—

From C. H. MOUNSEY, Esq., Acting Collector of Coimbatore, to the Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, dated 31st May 1899, R.O.C. No. 694 (a) P.

Referring to G.O., No. 724 P., of the 15th May 1899, I have the honour to enquire whether the note-book referred to is intended to be supplied to all medical men on plague duty in the district irrespective of their grade at the railway and at the road frontier inspection stations or whether they should be supplied only to the hospital assistants on plague duty at the railway inspection stations.

2. The doubt arises because the extract of the Surgeon-General's letter read in the Government order speaks of medical men in general terms whereas the Government order refers specifically to the hospital assistants on plague duty at the railway inspection stations.

ORDER—No. 895 P., dated 12th June 1899.

The Collector will be informed that the intention is that the note-books should be supplied to (1) all examining officers, male and female, at railway inspection stations, and (2) to clerks employed at important stations, such as Pódanúr, Arkonam and Perambur.

C. No. 1269 P

SUBJECT.

Note books for medical officers on plague duty.

For ORDER.

As to whether G.O. 724 P of 15.5.99 was intended to apply only to Hospital Assistants on plague duty at railway stations as the wording of the G.O. would indicate. The Hon. Considered (vide Note of 20.1.99) that it would be a decided advantage if all plague officers wore or possessed some distinctive indication of their offices as it would secure for them proper respect and would prevent false personation. The S. G.'s proposal in para. 4 of his letter No. 188 of 23.2.99 seems to apply to medical officers in general.
