Madras, 28th March 1899.

VM

From
The Agent and Manager,
Madras Railway Company.

To
The Plague Commissioner,
Fort St George.

SIR,

The pay clerks of this Company who have frequently to travel on the line have brought to notice the grave risks of the loss of the cash in their possession which they incur when they are called upon to leave the Railway carriages for the purpose of being examined by the medical authorities at plague inspecting stations.

The men frequently have large sums of money with them for the purpose

purpose of paying the salaries of the staff.
They are always given a reserved third class compartment and they hold passes issued by the Company, so that their statements that they belong to the paying staff can always be verified by the Inspecting Staff.

I shall be obliged therefore if you can see your way to relaxing the rule, under which passengers are required to leave their compartments, in favour of the ^{each} paying staff of this Company.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

J. M. V. S.
