Forwarded. The undersigned considers that a separate series of numbers should be given to plague correspondence and that the question of whether the whole or any portion of it should be destroyed may be left for future consideration when more experience has been gained.

FROM

J. K. Wallen Esquire

COLLECTOR AND DISTRICT MAGISTRATE,

North Arcot,

TO

The

Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras.

The Plague Commissioners of Madras.

SIR,

I have the honor to request you to be good enough to let me know whether correspondence and papers relating to Plague should be taken to the Retain or the Destroy list.
I think they may be entered in the latter list and destroyed after 10 years.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. K. Wallen
