To
The Secretary to the Commissioner of

MADRAS.

Sir,

Adverting to your Ref to n: 2762 dated 6th March 1899, I have the honour to state that in my opinion the shandy at Hindupur should not be stopped at present, as it will prove a hardship to the people of Hindupur and those of the adjoining villages in buying provisions and selling stock.

Owing to the plague scare, and owing to the evacuation of Hindupur no merchant who has the boldness to keep open a shop can be found in Hindupur and as such the very few people that survive the plague are left to depend upon the shandy ~~up~~ for their provisions. By the approach of the hot weather, the disease is being stamped out gradually and it seems not advisable to stop the shandy now.

I have the honour to
Sir
Your most obedient servant

To

The Head Assistant Collector

Sir,

According to your Ref no 862 of the 15th Current to report about the Bazar held at Hindupur, I beg to state that the Bazar now held at Hindupur every Friday is useful in supplying things sufficient for a week only to the people living outside the Town in huts.
There are no petty dealers now and even the merchants outside the town have not opened retail shops for selling victuals to the ^{public} people.
2. The Reeve of the Town also states that the people who are inhabitants of the surrounding villages within a radius of 3 or 4 miles gather at the market and bring things for sale.
If the gathering is not allowed at the market held once a week it would be very difficult to get provisions for the public and for the Public Servants that are here on duty.

3. The dealings in the Market are not extensive enough to admit of cash imports and exports up to last week. The gathering was not very large. It would commence at about 10 A.M. and disperse by 3 or 4 P.M.

4. The Agriculturists also suffer a great deal for want of a Regular Market as they cannot sell their things sufficiently and the Collections of Revenue in this kind time has also been hampered a great deal.

5. I beg therefore to state that the prohibition of the Market will seriously inconvenience the Public at large and Mercantile Community.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your obedient servant for the week ending 1-3-98.

" I would suggest that the Shandy day ^(Sat) at Hindupur be stopped entirely, if possible, as this would prevent the influx of people from the surrounding villages and would further minimise the risk of contagion being carried from village to village "
