Dated 30th. March 1899.

From

E . S c o t t Esquire,

Ag. Collector of Timnevelly.

To

The Plague Commissioner,

M a d r a s .

Sir,

Adverting to the concluding portion of para 1 of your letter No.3096 dated 11th.March 1899, I have the honour to state that I propose to make the following reductions in the plague establishment in this district.

(2) The Hospital Assistant Mela Viraragavapuram Dispensary who inspects the passengers arriving at the Timmevelly Rail-way Station and grants them passports for which he gets a monthly allowance of 1/5th. of his pay under G.O.No. 1653-P, -- dated 23-9-98 will be ordered to discontinue his inspection.

(b) Of the 3 watchers now entertained by the Tinnevely Municipal Council to guard the plague sheds one will be dispensed with.

2. Before issuing these instructions to the Taluk Board and Municipal Council Tinnevely I request to be informed -- if you have any ~~obj~~ objection to the reduction proposed.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Σ 1cm.

Ag. Collector.
