Adi Festival at Hogenkal Cauvery in the Salem District.

Ordering the publication of a notification in the Fort St. George and certain District Gazettes imposing restrictions on the attendance of persons from plague-infected areas at the —,

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From R. B. CLEGG, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Collector and District Magistrate, Salem, to the Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department (through the Sanitary Commissioner, Madras), dated Camp, Yercaud, 9th June 1899, No. 1072-P.

I have the honour to state that the annual Adi festival at the Hogenkal Cauvery in the Dharmapuri taluk is to take place from the 30th July to 5th August next and about 1,000 persons are expected to attend from the Mysore Province and the North Arcot district. As plague is still lingering in parts of the North Arcot district, the Mysore Province and the Hosur taluk, it is desirable that pilgrimage to the festival from these and other plague-infected parts should be prohibited and a draft notification is accordingly submitted for orders. The usual statement accompanies.

ENCLOSURE.

Name of the festival or fair.	Place where held.	Distance to the nearest railway station.	Date of commencement and termination of festival.	Average attendance during the past three years.	From what districts in the Madras Presidency and from what places outside the Presidency pilgrimage should be prohibited and the number of people expected from each of such districts or places.

ORDER—No. 986 P., dated 24th June 1899.

The Collector's proposal is approved and the following notification will be published in the Fort St. George and Salem and North Arcot District Gazettes:—

NOTIFICATION.

Whereas His Excellency the Governor of Fort St. George in Council is satisfied that there is danger of an outbreak of plague at the Hogenkal Cauvery in the Dharmapuri taluk of the Salem district if persons from the State of Mysore, the district of North Arcot, the Hosur taluk in the Salem district and other plague-infected parts are permitted to visit that place on the occasion of the ensuing Adi festival:

In exercise of the powers delegated to him under the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, His Excellency the Governor in Council prohibits the attendance at the said festival of persons from the aforesaid places from the 23rd July to 7th August 1899, both days inclusive.

2. All persons proceeding to the festival in contravention of this notification will be turned back.

2. The Collector of Salem is requested to make the necessary arrangements for enforcing the prohibition.

3. The Resident in Mysore will be requested to move the Government of that State to give publicity to the prohibition ordered by the notification.
