Proceedings of the Plague Commissioner, Ref. on C. No. 2948, dated 11th March 1899.

Read—the following letter from J. K. BATTEN, Esq., Acting Collector and District Magistrate, North Arcot, to the Plague Commissioner, Madras (through the Sanitary Commissioner, Madras), dated Chittoor, 3rd March 1899, R.C. No. 893-P.:—

I have the honour to report that a festival called the Brahmotsavam festival of Ranganatha Swami is to be held at Pallikonda in Vellore taluk of this district between the 11th April and 20th April 1899, both days inclusive. This festival is attended chiefly by pilgrims from Vellore, Gudiyattam and a few villages in the immediate neighbourhood of Pallikonda. But as there is a danger of an outbreak of plague if pilgrims are permitted to assemble without any restriction, it is proposed to prohibit the pilgrimage absolutely. A draft notification and a statement in the prescribed form are herewith sent. The prohibition will be enforced as usual by placing a cordon of Police and Salt peons round the village and turning back the pilgrims.
