For Chief Secretary

Copy of D.O. from Mr C. Akilandayya to Mr M. Hammick dated Indor Hall 15th June 1899:-

I have a favour to ask of Government and I respectfully beg they will be graciously pleased to give it their favourable consideration.

Now that I have agreed to sell to Govt the Estate portion of the Indor Hall property there will still remain on my hands about 70 acres of land, situated outside the catchment area, for the greater part of which I can have no use.

Building for speculative purposes or for renting is not in my line of business; and unless I can find some body to buy the whole block for a princely mansion for which it is eminently adapted, a great part of it will not be suitable even for building sites, the lower parts of the hill only being fitted for that purpose.

I believe I can arrange to sell the whole block - after reserving a site for myself - to some native prince and I respectfully beg Government to tell me that they will not exercise their exercise their option to veto the purchase in case I should make such an arrangement I request Government to do me this favour

Dear Aunt Lizzie - Just one line to say I have got rid of them for good and all. I had all the disorderly ideas they were there - the Clutterbuck boat ship brought them on Jamaica.

Charles Shakespeare came to see me - He was looking well but rather shaky - Jane Austen had been here.

The weather has been simply atrocious - raining all day today - but it's pleasanter than Madras.

I hope you will send my letters on to

Yours sincerely

after writing this letter I saw Goodrich - I ate fast mean and asked him about the expeditions - He said it was correct about the 7 days - but still I would rather you told me Yes or No - so please have the telegram sent - In case Hammick has not left the address is the office of
