Appointment of a Military officer a seat on the City Municipal Council

FOR ORDERS.

Please See the notes of Sir Henry Bliss and His Excellency the Governor at the place flagged H in G.O. No. 667 M. dated 28th March 1898 and para. 2 of this order in which the Lieutenant General, Madras Command was asked to suggest an officer of his staff at the Head Quarters other than the Deputy Judge Advocate Genl preferably one who does not go on tour for nomination to a seat the vacant on the Municipal Council cotacomm.

2. The Lieutenant General then recommended the appointment of Col. Garwood, Superintending Engineer, Madras Command, Military works, and the nomination was accepted in G.O. No. 867 M. dated 5th May 1898.

2. The seat having again fallen vacant by the departure of Col. Garwood England, the Collector in the first of the letters read above, requested the reference to G.O. No 667 M. dated 17 March 1898, that the Lieutenant General might be asked to suggest an officer of his staff for the vacancy on Council, and ^{at the same time} suggested the name Col. W.T. Shaw R.E.

3. The Lieutenant General, who was consulted in the matter, now states, in the second letter read above, that no officer of the Command Headquarters Staff is desirous of accepting a seat on the Cochinamund Municipal Council.
