SUBJECT.

FOR ORDERS.

As to whether Rarichan Muppan may be exempted from the disqualification of being an Honorary Magistrate under Section 10 A of the District Municipalities Act, as recommended by the District, or whether the resignation of his seat on the Calicut Bench should be accepted before he is appointed a Municipal Councillor. In its Proceedings of 1891 M. dated 8th November 1898 and 11th 64th Is. dated 5th May 1899, the Government state that there were not sufficient reasons for exempting this person from this disqualification and no new grounds have now been advanced by the Collector for granting this concession. It is, however, observed that none of the eleven members on the Calicut Bench is a Municipal Councillor and that the exemption of Rarichan Muppan will not not therefore interfere with the strict observance of the rule that Magistrates who are Municipal Councillors should take no part in the trial of any case in which the Municipality is concerned. In view of this fact and of the Collector's repeated recommendations, the exemption asked for may perhaps be granted. In this connection, attention is invited to G.O. No. 170.

 Judicial, dated 28th January 1899.

2. The Collector is wrong in supposing that as Ravichan Muppan's name is not included in the list of persons qualified to be elected, he will be ineligible for election, even if he resigns his seat on the bench. It has been held in G.O. No. 164 dated 15th June 1888, that the omission of a person's name from the list of persons qualified to be elected is not conclusive proof of disqualification, and if ^{M. B.} Ravichan Muppan resigns his seat on the Bench, he will, if otherwise qualified, be eligible for election, even though his name is not included in the list of persons qualified to be elected.

V.A. It seems a case where the 1/18/99 fact of the Councilor being an honorary Magistrate is undoubted.
