ENCLOSURES. 3

From

M. R. Ry. K. Lunganath Royce

LOCAL & MUNICIPAL DEPT. CHAIRMAN, MUNICIPAL COUNCIL,
CURRENT No. 2150m
To TIRUPATI

THE Secretary to Government,
Local and Municipal Department,
Madras.

Sir,

turning

ones not having been disposed of within the year, the said amount was taken as demand. In 1898-99 the assessment was reduced by the Council on appeal of 19-80 to the arrear demand under tax on buildings was reduced to Rs 243-7-8, a revised statement is accordingly prepared and submitted herewith. As regards the demand under warrant fees shown in column 3, annas two appertaining to the year under report was by mistake included in that of the arrears. Hence 2 revised statements are submitted herewith making necessary alterations.

4. Clause 5. The details in cols. 12 & 19 under Private Scavenging fees and market rents having been omitted by oversight and some other mistakes having crept in, a revised statement is herewith submitted.

5. Clause 7. Revised statement IX A is submitted as directed with reference to the net current demand under Profession Tax.

6. Clause 8. 23 Meetings were held with 32 officials and 80 non-officials attending the same. The average attendance under item 7a of statement is consequently 3-48 and not 3-42 and the total of items 7a & 7b is 4-87 and not 4-81. So also, the total average attendance of the European and Eurasian and the native members is 4-87.

7. I regret to find that so many mistakes had been committed in the statements and have given rise to unnecessary correspondence. I took charge of the Municipality on 4th May last, and as the statements were due in the Government office by 1st June last, I had to hurry up the report and statements and so left the preparation of the statements wholly to the Manager who I naturally believed was a competent and careful man as he had served the Municipality as Manager for more than 7 years. I now find that the reverse is the case and am trying to put him in the way and shall try to see that no room is given in future for such unsatisfactory state of things.

I have the honor to be
Sir
your most obedient servant.
