NOTE FOR THE MA

In reference to the draft I submitted, I venture to point out that in the D.O. d 16 "July. 99" Mr Akilandayya was told that - the "one lakh contributed by Govt would be paid at once - & the remaining one lakh as soon as the Municipality borrows the money.

I had not before me the file containing D.O. no. d. 18 viii 99 - which was in the Political Dept - in which the M.M. says "the acquisition of the land must precede or the simultaneous with payment" Mr. Akilandayya in his letter
d. 16 "July 99. says -

"I am ready and willing to receive part payments of one lakh contributed by Government & to wait for the balance etc."

Mr. Loris apparently misunderstood the M.M.'s orders - Shall I now tell Mr. Akilandayya that he must wait until the land is acquired -

NOTE FOR THE St. M.

In connection with the matter of the Marlin and Reservoir orders are requested that the Com. of Niagara should be addressed O.O. in view of the extent to which area of land in the latter water basin - belonging to private persons. i.e. Mr. Wapshaw. & the value of that land in view to its acquisition - I understand the St. M. desires that that matter should be taken up.

Wm

Yes. But keep this quite apart from the acquisition of Mr. Akilaudia's property. There is no hurry about the former and there is about the latter.

Perhaps it will be better to complete the acquisition of Mr. A's property before enquiring about the rest. The Com's subordinates may get muddled & delay about acquiring Mr. A's

St. M. 22.8.29.

NOTE FOR THE Secretary.

Please see the D.O. at Flag O.
Mr. Akilandayya's letter may now be transferred to the Financial Department with the request that orders may be issued in that department for ^{the} payment of the amount with reference to P.O. No 905 A in dt 28th June

I don't think this will do

Mr. Akilandiah told me he was desirous of receiving the

I think that the property should
