Sir,

Referring to Collector's letter No. R.O.C $\frac{451}{879}$ of 1899 dated 19th May 1899 drawing attention to G.O No. 663 M. Mis dated 12 idem and directing to arrange for a special meeting for the election of a competent man in case Mr. Ky. U. A. Abdur Rahim Sahib reverts to his appointment in the Registration Department, I have the honor to report that a special meeting was held this morning for the purpose and one Mr. Ky. I. Thamothara Nayudu has obtained the majority of votes.

From his application herewith submitted it will be seen that he is in every way qualified for the appointment. He is known to me for the past 21 years and is respectably connected. His late father was Vice-President of this Municipality for about 14 years and was known as an upright man, and I can therefore strongly recommend for the appointment.

To be safe on both sides I would suggest that he may be appointed on probation for one year.

Copy of the Proceedings of the election is herewith Submitted.

To

J. G. Wood Esq.
Divisional Officer, Coimbatore.

Sir,

I beg to state that at the meeting of the Coimbatore Municipal Councillors held on the 15th instant for the election of a Secretary I was one of the candidates for the appointment. There were 19 Councillors present and votes were formally taken. Before the voting papers were taken out of the ballot box it appears that a Councillor was moving about and enquiring of each of the others as to whom he had voted for. When the ballot box was emptied and the voting papers were counted there were found only 18 of them. On enquiry into the missing vote M.R.Ry Sambandham Mudaliar, Councillor, seems to have said that he did not remember to have voted and offered to vote at that stage. Some Councillors said he had waived his right to vote and others that he might vote; while a third suggestion was made that the ballot might be repeated. Some of the Councillors were opposed to this last measure as it seemed to them to be irregular and perhaps unnecessary too, but it was nevertheless ordered without being put to the vote. The ballot papers were not examined but were destroyed then and there and the reballoting took place.

2. Now I respectfully beg to state that I have reasons to believe that at the first voting, I got the majority of the votes viz 8 in my favor. There were two other candidates viz M.R.Ry Vayapuri Mudaliar and M.R.Ry Damodaram Naidu. The former of these seems to have secured 6 votes and the latter 4. This must have been known to the Councillors before the reballoting as, thinking that the original ballot was not invalidated most of the Councillors made no secret of whom they had voted for. There was sufficient time between the first and the second balloting for interested Councillors to try to secure their end.

3. The result of the reballoting was that I remained with my original eight votes while M.R.Ry Damodaram Naidu got 10 votes, all those except one that had voted for M.R.Ry Vayapuri Mudaliar at the first ballot voting for M.R.Ry Damodaram Naidu at the second.

4. I beg to state that there was nothing informal at the first ballot and if one of the Councillors did not choose to vote he should have been left out of account. It was only when on examination of the first voting papers it was found that the election would have been affected by the difference of a single vote there should have been a reballoting. The procedure adopted therefore in the absence of any circumstance to either necessitate it or otherwise make it valid is in itself significant.

5 I have submitted to you the facts of the case as I gathered them from respectable witnesses and if you consider that the procedure adopted at the meeting was irregular, I beg that you will kindly institute the necessary enquiry before submitting for the approval of Government the Councillors' nomination.

I beg to remain, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant.

SIR,

I have the honour to recommend that the appointment of M.R.Ry, I. Damodara Naidu be approved by Government. Considering the provisions ~~XX~~ of Section 39(a) of Act ~~VI~~ IV of 18$4 I see no use in having the appointment made on probation for one year. At the same time that I make this recommendation, as I think Government should be in possession of the facts, I have also the honour to send a copy of a petition from one of the candidates. On this I have to remark that a majority of the Municipality seem honestly to have wished for a fresh ballot when it was discovered there were only 18 votes in the ballot box instead of 19, the ~~X~~ number of councillors present. That the Chairman and the councillors in adopting this course acted illegally or ultra vires or with any bad motive can not, I think, be contended for a moment. If there was nothing illegal in the action even supposing petitioner's statement as to the number of votes he got at the first ballot be accepted, as true, he has lost his election by a piece of bad luck, & by the perfectly fair electioneering tactics of one candidate with no chance of being withdrawn so that another candidate may be benefitted. As the destroyed votes were never opened it is impossible to say if the voting was as the petitioner thinks it was. It is just possible that some may have told him they voted for him though they did not do so.

It is not clear what the Coll. means by this. The appointments are usually made on probation - Vide flags H, I & C

2. It should be noted that the different steps that might be taken when only 18 votes were found in the ballot box were scussed and it seems a mere chance which was adopted. I have fully inquired into what passed in the petitioner's presence from the two senior official-members present.

I have the honour to be,

LOCAL & MUNICIPAL DEPT
CURRENT No. ……………

The humble petition of M. Rama

Head clerk office of the Inspector of Schools, Western Circle.

Most respectfully sheweth:—

That the petitioner was one of the applicants for the post of Secretary to the Coimbatore Municipal Council.

That there were two other candidates for the vacant post, namely, MRRy Damodaram Naidu, Court and School Inspector of Police, Chingleput and MRRy Vaijapuri Mudaliar acting Stationary Magistrate of Avanashi.

That on the 15th July 1899, the Councillors 19 in number met to elect by ballot one of these three candidates. All the three names were put to the vote and voting papers were put into the ballot-box, one of the Councillors mak some delay in putting in his voting paper. The Chairman who was the Polling officer opened the ballot box and proceeded to examine the votes of each candidate. Then another Councillor wanted to know in the first instance whether all the 19 votes had been put in. The votes we Count

8 votes in the ballot box. The delay made by one Councillor in putting in his voting paper and the query made by another as to all the votes had been put in point to a previous design on the part of a section of the Municipal Council. There was a discussion among the Councillors as to which of them appertained the missing vote and M.R.Ry Sambandham Mudaliar seems to have said that he did not remember to have voted and offered to vote at that stage. Some Councillors objected to this and suggested a second ballot on the ground that one of the Councillors did not vote. Some other Councillors argued that there was no irregularity about the first ballot and that it ought to be confirmed. During this interval a Councillor went about and tried to ascertain of the other Councillors as to whom they had severally voted for. It was evident to all that the petitioner had secured 8 votes, M.R.Ry Vaiyapuri Mudaliar 6 and M.R.Ry Damodaram Naidu 4. The Chairman, destroying the voting papers immediately finally directed a second ballot without putting the proposition to the vote. The result of the second ballot was that the petitioner got his 8 votes as before, M.R.Ry Damodaram Naidu 10, and M.R.Ry Vaiyapuri Mudaliar 1. The result of the seco[illegible] ballot was adopted without any record of the first ballot and with even the original [illegible] papers destroyed.

The petitioner most respectfully submits that so long as the facts are as stated by the petitioner there was nothing to invalidate the first ballot wherein he was elected by a majori and that the second ballot to which recou was had by the Council was quite unnecessar since the exercise or not of the right of voting is only a matter which concerns each individual Councillor, irregular and beyond the legitimate powers of the Chairman. That even if the missing vote had been included in the first ballot and had gone against the petitioner, he would nevertheless have secured the majority of votes viz 8 and that under these Circumstances it was evident that the second ballot was only directed to put him out.

The petitioner begs to add that he has submitted a petition to the Divisional Offic who seems to have submitted the same to the Collector with his endorsement Certifying to the truth of the facts mentioned therein.

The petitioner therefore prays that a thorough enquiry may be instituted into the whole matter, that the second ballot may be declared null and void and the first Confirmed.
