Note

The writer raises a nice point of law - but he is probably wrong. In any case, it does not seem right to refuse to hear him, because the responsibility of ~~[illegible]~~ taking action under § 15 of the Act lies apparently upon the Revenue officer - He is bound, if the office is vacant to take charge. It is submitted that the point
To The Petitioner should go to the Advocate General for opinion.

CURRENT No. 2176 M.

Sir,

I beg to respectfully submit the following for the consideration of His Excellancy the Governor in Council, with a view to action being taken under section 15 clause (1) of the Municipal Act if His Excellancy the Governor in Council should deem fit.

2. Mr R. Frischer was notified to have been elected a councillor of the Madura Municipality in the Fort St George Gazette of the

G.O. 187 M/
5-2-96

3/

the 11th February 1899,

6. The section applicable to the case is section 17 (1), which runs as follows:—

"Subject to the provisions of sections 19 and 20, every person appointed, as aforesaid, to be a Municipal Councillor shall continue in office for three years from the date of the Fort St George Gazette wherein his appointment was notified under section 21 A and he shall then cease to be a Municipal Councillor; and any Municipal Councillor appointed to be Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall be deemed to have vacated such office on the expiry of the term for which he was originally appointed Municipal their seats in one ward, and that some chairmen tried similarly to perpetuate their chairmanship without submitting themselves for re-election by getting themselves again elected as Councillors while keeping their seat as chairman. For under the Act as it stood till 1897 there was no provision in regard to councillors corresponding to clause (d) of section 10 A and in regard to chairman, the chairmanship ceased only "on his ceasing to be Municipal Councillor", not "on the expiry of the term for which he was originally appointed Municipal Councillor".

9. In the Amending Act, sections 10 and 17 were altered expressly with the object of putting an end to such practice on the part of some Councillors and Chairmen.

10. The change was contemplated in the original Amending Bill itself, by sections 9 and 13 of that Bill. In the statement of objects and reasons accompanying the Bill, the reason for section 9 of the Bill is thus given:— "As the District Municipalities Act stands at present there is nothing to prevent a Municipal Councillor standing for re-election before his term of office expires, but this is undesirable and hence the present amendment".

11. The reason for the change sought to be introduced by section 13 of the Bill is thus stated:— "As section 17 stands at present a Municipal Councillor who has been once elected Chairman of a Municipality in which the election system is in force can be continued in office for an indefinite period by being re-appointed a Municipal Councillor before the expiry of the period for which he was originally appointed — a course which is obviously undesirable. The proposed amendments remove this possibility and render the meaning of the section clearer in other respects."

× (Vide Fort St George Gazette dated 6th February 1894 page 10).

12. Though there was some change in the wording of sections 9 and 13 of the Amending Bill as it passed through the select Committee, still the object with which the changes were introduced was kept clearly in view and the Law changed as intended.

13. Now applying section 17(1) of the Act as it now stands to Mr Fischer's case, he should be deemed to have vacated his chairmanship on the 11th February 1899, when "The term for which he was originally appointed Municipal Councillor" expired. I submit that the Divisional Officer should have assumed charge on the 11th February 1899 under section 15(1) of the Act and that Mr Fischer has been holding the office of Chairman since that date without legal authority.

14. It cannot be contended that, as Mr Fischer became Chairman and Councillor for the second time before the Amending

Act came into force, he has a right under the Act as it stood before the amendment to be chairman until the period for which he was subsequently appointed Councillor expires. For, in the first place, the cessation of Mr Fischer's chairmanship arises under the Act as it now stands. In the second place, the words "on the expiry of the term for which he was originally appointed Municipal Councillor" were expressly introduced in order to prohibit chairmen continuing their offices by getting themselves ~~and~~ hV a second time elected as Councillors. In the third place, if this provision was not intended to apply to chairman who had got themselves elected as Councillors while retaining their chairmanships under the old Act, the provision is entirely unnecessary in the Amending Act. For, after the Amending Act of 1897, by virtue of section 10 A (d), no Municipal Councillor could get himself elected without first resigning his seat as Municipal Councillor, and therefore the wording of s. 17 of the old Act that "Any Municipal Councillor appointed to be Chairman shall be deemed to have vacated such office on his ceasing to be Municipal Councillor" would itself make it impossible for a Chairman to perpetuate his office as he used to do before. In other words the change introduced in section 10 of the Act in regard to Councillors would itself be sufficient to meet the end in view in regard to Chairman elected subsequent to the Amending Act of 1897. The change therefore in section 17 introduced by the words "on the expiry of the term for which he was originally appointed Municipal Councillor", must have reference solely to persons who, before the Amending Act III of 1897 came into force, were chairmen and had tried to get an extension of their period of office by getting themselves elected as Councillors while keeping their chairmanship under the Law then in force. The Amendment of section 17 above referred to, ~~have~~ but use 's, especially the use of the word "originally", clearly indicates the intention of the Legislature ~~to~~ apply the section as amended retrospectively I submit therefore that it is not possible to contend in the present case that the Amending Act has not affected Mr Fischer's claim to be chairman till March 1900, under the Act as it stood before the Amendment.

15. For these reason I am humbly of opinion that Mr Fischer has clearly ceased to be chairman on the 11th February 1899 and request that His Excellancy the Governor in Council will be pleased to direct the Divisional Officer to take charge at once until a fresh chairman is elected.

16. As the matter is urgent and affects proceedings of the Council from the 11th February 1899 forwards, I pray that early orders may be passed on this letter.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
K. Venkataramy
