CURRENT No. 921M

The humble petition of Ramaswamy Konar, son of Ramaswamy Konar, one of the tin merchants at East Prasi Street Madras.

1 That he humbly begs to state that it has been the duty of tin makers Madras to make lanterns for the Municipality and repairs concerning them and to supply all material such as, new lanterns, new stone pillars for the roads and streets of Madras.

2 That he humbly begs to state that an istia was given by the Municipal Councilors stating that the are going to give contract

Notice is to be understood that the rate is

(5) That while all the rates were ready to take for less rate, it is very unjust to see that the Contract is as secretly made without being publicly held to a higher rate to the great loss of municipality and that also it is quite strange that the Municipal Council have not taken particular care about the income of municipality by having the Contract publicly held and that similar to their unjust actions and failure according to the income of municipality is by decreasing.

(6) That the humble petitioner is ready to take Contract for the less rate as per attached to this and that other two makes are ready and that it is unjust to give the
