With reference to para 3 of

have the honour to report that the land tax registers were revised resulting in an increase of Rs 72-12-0 in the demand.

The actual net demand
under this tax in 1897-98
was Rs 88.

2. The Registers were last revised in 1892-93. The fact that the present revision resulted in the paltry increase of No 72-12- indicates that the revision has been carried out in but a half hearted way. The needs of the town have been rapidly growing with the town itself, and it seems necessary, in view to meet the growing demand for funds, that a more careful revision should be taken in hand ere long.

Handwritten notes on the left page, including: 1892-93. The fact that the present revision resulted in the partial removal of No. 25-12 indicates that the revision has been carried out in a half-hearted way. The words of the former have been so lightly covering with the latter itself, and it seems necessary to revise to meet the growing demand for funds, that a more complete revision should be taken in hand ere long.
