Copy of letter from the District Magistrate, Nellore,

Ref. No. 416/Mag., dated 30th March 1899:-

I have the honour to report the following case for the orders of Government.

2. M.E. Ry. Dhara Markandayya Sastri, a Municipal Councillor and Honourary Bench Magistrate of Ongole, applies for permission to stand as a Municipal Councillor at the elections in April next, as his term of office expires by the end of March 1899. He desires to continue to serve on the Municipal Council under an exemption order from Government. If this cannot be done, he says that this application may be considered to be his resignation for the Bench Magistrate's post.

3. I am not prepared to recommend him for exemption, and hence request that his resignation for the Bench Magistrate's post may be accepted. If this meets with the approval of Government, nomination to fill up the vacancy will be submitted.
