Sir,
I have the honour to bring to Your notice that all the preliminary procedures required for conducting the election of Councillors embodied in No 1950 M dated 19 November 1898, to fill up the two existing vacancies were only observed and no trees published intimating the public the date, time and the place when election will be held. Only one nomination slip only signed by two voters was received after the prescribed date. Under these circumstances no election could be held. In this connection I would respectfully beg to bring to the notice of Government that this being the first of the kind, the people are not conversant with the rules and have failed to take advantage of the privilege of the election granted to them. I have, therefore, brought the matter to your notice and will abide by your orders.
