GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From A. L. HANNAY, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 20th March 1899, Ref. on Cur. No. 745.

I have the honour to state that the Madura Municipality claims a refund of Rs. 277 paid by them towards the charges of the Madura Bench Magistrate's establishment and contingencies in the year 1896-97. The claim is made by virtue of G.O., No. 1460 M., dated 2nd September 1896, which directs that such charges should be defrayed from Provincial funds.

2. I am therefore directed to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council may be pleased to accord the necessary sanction. The charges can be met from savings in the budget provision for the current official year under 19B. (a) Law and Justice—Jails—Lock-ups—Charges for Police custody, Dietary charges including Sick diet.

Endt. No. 853.

Referred to the Accountant-General for favour of remarks.

(By order.)

24th March 1899.

(Signed) A. R. KNAPP,
Acting Under Secretary.

From W. H. DAWSON, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 11th May 1899, No. 1428—T. 15-Mdu.

With reference to your endorsement, No. 853, dated the 24th of March 1899, I have the honour to observe as follows regarding the claim of the Madura Municipality for a refund of Rs. 277 paid by them towards the charges of the Madura Bench Magistrates' establishment and contingencies.

2. By G.O., No. 1460 M., dated the 2nd September 1896, it was directed that Bench Magistrates' establishments and contingencies should be debited to Provincial funds, and the fines realized under sections 3 to 5 of the Towns Nuisances Act should be credited to those funds, but that at the end of the year the surplus of fines should be transferred to the credit of the municipality. Accordingly the sum of Rs. 3,061-1-5, calculated as shown below, was transferred to the credit of the Madura Municipality in the books of this office for the year 1896-97:—

	RS.	A.	P.
Fines received during the year 1896-97 under sections 3 to 5 of the Towns Nuisances Act	3,268	6	5
Deduct—
Charges for Bench Magistrates' establishments as shown in the books of this office, including contribution for pension.	207	5	0
Surplus ..	3,061	1	5

3. It appears, however, that previous to January 1897 the charges adjusted in the books of this office were only a portion of the charges incurred on account of

Bench Magistrates' clerks and contingencies; another portion, as shown in the statement enclosed which has been furnished by the Secretary to the Madura Municipal Council, being borne direct by the Municipal funds. The total of the latter portion is Rs. 274-10-0, thus—

	RS.	A.	P.
For establishment	211	4	0
For contingencies	63	6	0
Total ..	274	10	0

4. Under the order of 2nd September 1896, the Madura Municipality is entitled to a refund of this amount, but the effect of the adjustment would be to increase the deduction shown in paragraph 2 above by the identical sum plus Rs. 20-4-0 or one-sixth of the pay of the first clerk and one anna per rupee on the pay of the second clerk and the peon on account of contribution for pension and leave. As effect was given to the orders from 1st April 1896, from which date the establishment became pensionable, this contribution ought to be paid. The surplus of five receipts excess paid to the municipality was, therefore, Rs. 274-10-0, plus Rs. 20-4-0 and, setting off the municipality's claim of Rs. 274-10-0 against this, there is a balance of Rs. 20-4-0 due from the municipality, which I propose to adjust in the account for 1898-99.
