To The H. Bradley Esq. I.C.S.,

Madras.

Sir,
Gentlemen,

Adverting to G.O. No 136.M. his dated 31st January last directing the acquisition of land in Triplicane for the opening of Chinappa Rosth Street into Triplicane High Road, communicated to me with your endorsement D. No: 82 dated 6th February last, I have the honor to state that notice under Sections 9 & 10 were issued and duly served on the party Muneammall. In response to which she put in a petition requesting that the verandah of her house as well, may be acquired. She subsequently appeared before me on the 27th Idem and made a statement to the same effect. I inspected the spot myself and found that, unless the verandah were acquired, the Municipality would secure no right over it, and the acquisition of the house without the verandah would be useless.

2. The President, Municipal Commission was thereupon addressed in the matter. He states that he has no objection to acquire the additional portion also.

3. I beg to submit herewith for publication
