CURRENT No. 1613/99

To His Excellency

The Governor of Madras

This is a humble petition of Louppoo Sanny Vaidoo late Martuary clerk in the 3rd circle residing in the Singara-Lope Street Second ward Madras Town

I was doing my duty in the Madras Municipal Office from 1869 to the 30th January 1896 without any guilt or fault. But in February 1896 I and 3 other Martuary clerks were dismissed the service for the fact that we have served long there upon we presented a petition to the Sanitary Inspector; and with his permission we went to the District Doctor. He certified as to our fitness for service. With all that we were detained from entering into service.

My fellow ^{3 other} petitioners have their gratuity sanctioned. But I get no gratuity although my services were even greater than theirs

And so I humbly request
Your Excellency to sanction me gratuity or send me an order to take me to service again.

I remain

His Excellency
