Before P. Castelino Esq.,

Third Presidency Magistrate.

The 3rd day of March 19 31.

Rex - vs - 1. S. Janammal, 2. Miss Krishna Bai, 3. Mrs. Sarada Bai. --- Sec. 151 I.P.C.

Judgment.

The three accused Janammal, Krishna Bai and Sarada Bai are charged under section 151 I.P.C., that on the evening of 25-2-31 they continued in an assembly of five or more persons likely to cause a disturbance of the public peace after knowing that the assembly had been lawfully commanded to disperse.

2. Accused 1 and accused 3 plead not guilty, while accused 2 says she will plead neither guilty nor not guilty.

3. P.W.1 M.S. Ananthachariar, Assistant Commissioner of Police, found a large crowd of about 500 persons in front of the shops of Junus Sait and K. Chellaram obstructing road -- traffic. Accused 1 was picketing K. Chellaram's shop and -- accused 2 and accused 3 Junus Sait's shop. The crowd was excited and was creating great confusion. Apprehending a breach of the peace, he ordered the crowd and the three accused with them to disperse. The accused refused to disperse. He arrested them and made his report (Ex.A)

4. Accused have no defence. On the evidence of P.W.1 there is no doubt that there was every likelihood of disturbance of the public peace by the large crowd which collected with the accused and his command to disperse was in the circumstances perfectly legal. I convict all the three accused under section 151 I.P.C., and sentence them each to six months' simple imprisonment.
