From (Name) Major M.M. Khan, I.M.S.,

(Designation) Ag. Inspector General of Prisons

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (General) Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith for the - orders of Government, copies of letters dated 30th - January 1934, 13th February 1934 and 5th March 1934 - from the Territorial Commander, the Salvation Army, - Madras. The ex-prisoner referred to above, was allowed to have her son with her, while she was in the Presidency Jail for Women, Vellore under Rule 836(1) Jail Manual, as she was quite unwilling to part with him. He was then aged 3 years.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Major I.M.S.,

Ag. Inspector General of Prisons.

Copy of letter dated the 3/0th January 1934 from the Territorial Commander, The Salvation Army, Madras.

I am writing you regarding ~~the~~ one of the second later cases which have been sent to us according to G.O.No. 3842 and 3843 of 27th November, last and more particularly regarding the boy who has come with one of these, and to ask if there is any possibility of something being done for the maintenance of this child. He is, as far as we can gather, four years or more, of age, and naturally enough the cost of upkeep is rather a question.

It is true that maintenance is provided for his mother, but the boy presents a difficulty, and it becomes necessary for us to arrange for him to go to some school for the day, but in the meantime, there is also the question of food and clothing. It is rather difficult for the Home to undertake this as matters stand, and I shall therefore be very glad indeed if some consideration can be given and perhaps an allowance provided, so that the boy may be supported, in the same way as other children who may be under the care of institutions, quite apart from a Rescue Home.

Copy of letter dated the 13th February 1934 from the Territorial Commander, The Salvation Army, Madras.

In reference to your No. 1999 of February 7th, I have pleasure in giving you the following information.

- (1) The name of the mother of the child is Savari Ammal.
- (2) G.O.No. Mis. 3842 Law (General) dated 27-11-1933.
- (3) Date of admission is 6-12-1933
- (4) Savari Muthu, Somalapurem, Arcot District.

With regard to the boy, who is a bright little chap, his mother begs very hard indeed that he be allowed to stay with her. She says that if he is sent to her people they will illtreat him, and she is definitely afraid that this will be so. If it can be arranged for the boy to stay we can manage to send him to a Day School which would be very helpful, and at the same time perhaps keep an eye on him for the time that he is with his mother. I think, on the whole, that this would be a very useful arrangement and perhaps inculcate in the boy that - which will be of definite service to him in the days to come, as undoubtedly, the present years will, to some extent, be - impressionable ones.

I would urge, if possible, that the course which I have suggested, be agreed to.

Copy of letter dated the 5th March 1934 from the Territorial Commander, The Salvation Army, Madras.

Infanticide Cases- Salvation Army Rescue Home- Payment of maintenance charges for a child-

In further reference to the above named matter, I desire to say that we think the sum of five rupees (Rs.5/-) per month, for maintenance of this boy, would meet the need. It may not actually cover all costs, but considering all the circumstances, if the Government would agree to this, we should be prepared to keep the boy and make the necessary arrangements for him to attend a Day school.

I would repeat that I think this would be in the interests of the boy as well as his mother, and will possibly work out for the betterment of both, looking well ahead into the future.

I shall be pleased to hear from you again in due course.

Family Court - Saveri Ammal detention in the Salvation Army Rescue Home - Allowance to maintain her son.

C. 1554.A. From the Inspector-General of Prisons M. G. 486 dated 10-4-34.

A.S.

In G.O. No. 3842 Law (Genl) dated 27-11-33, the Court remits the unexpired portion of the sentence passed on convict Saveri Ammal on condition that she remains in the Rescue Home under the management of the Salvation Army,
Madras for a period of three years.
The convict was admitted into the Rescue Home on the 6th December 1933, with her son aged 3 years. Even while she was in the Presidency Jail for women, Bellare she was allowed to have her son with her, under Rule 886(i) Jail Manual. The rule clearly provides for the admission into a jail with its mother of any child up to six years of age, if it cannot be placed with its relations or otherwise properly
