Judgment dated 14-4-1934.

In all cases in which the Magistrate inflicts imprisonment or fine exceeding two hundred rupees, or both, a brief statement of the reasons for the conviction.

The case against the accused is clearly proved by P.Ws. 2 and 3 and their evidence is corroborated by P.W. 1. I do not see any ground to discredit their evidence which I believe is true. From the evidence it is clear that Accused 1 was keeping a brothel and that accused 2 was assisting her in the management of the brothel. Accused 1 and 2 plead guilty to a charge under S. 5(1) of the Act. I find them guilty and convict them of the offence and sentence them to undergo rigorous imprisonment for six months each.
