C.C.No.13457 of 1930.

Rex (B-2 station) versus. 1. K.V.Canapathy.
2. M.K.Venkataraman.

Charge:- That the accused yesterday (2-5-30) evening at about 5-30 p.m. continued to be in an assembly of 70 or 80 persons in the Loane Square, Broadway, which was likely to cause a disturbance of the public peace after knowing that such assembly had been lawfully commanded to disperse and thereby committed an offence punishable under section - - 151 of the Indian Penal Code and within my cognizance.

Plea of the accused:- Either guilty or not guilty.

J u d g m e n t.

The two accused stand charged under section 151 I.P.C. for having continued last evening in an assembly which was - - likely to cause a breach of the peace in spite of an order to disperse issued to the assembly by the Inspector of Police P.W.1.

The two accused do not want to plead anything before this court.

Two witnesses have been examined for the prosecution. P.W.1 is the Inspector of Police. He noticed an assembly of 70 or 80 persons in front of which the two accused were standing on a raised platform singing national songs and selling - packets of contraband salt. The assembly according to the evidence of the Inspector of Police which is corroborated by the evidence of an independent witness became so boisterous as to stop the tramway traffic also. The Inspector deposes that he feared breach of the peace and that he therefore commanded the assembly to disperse. The accused along with 7 or 8 persons refused to obey the orders lawfully issued by the Inspector. The accused were thereupon arrested and the remaining people ran away.

The accused have no defence witnesses. I therefore
