C.C.No.3/1930.

This case coming on for hearing of evidence before me on 26/5/1930, the Court delivered the following

Judgment.

The accused Durgabai of Cocanada has been charged by the Inspector of Police, Arni, under section 117 I.P.C. read with section 74 (f) of the Madras Salt Act. The allegations against her is that she on 22/5/1930 addressed a gathering of about 3000 persons in Arni and incited the audience to break the Salt Act and manufacture salt in every house. P.W.1. the Inspector of Police, Arni, speaks to the above fact.

2. The accused refuses to take part in the proceedings and pleads guilty to a charge framed against her under section 117 I.P.C. read with section 74 of the Madras Salt Act.

3. I accordingly find her guilty and convict her under section 117 I.P.C. read with section 74 of the Madras Salt Act and sentence her to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of nine months. She is provisionally placed in 'A' class.

dated 26th May 1930.

C.C.No.4/1930.

This case coming on for hearing of evidence before me on 26/5/1930 the Court delivered the following

Judgment.

This is a complaint by the Sub Divisional Magistrate, Vellore, against Durgabai of Cocanada for an offence under section 188 I.P.C. The case against the accused is that she on 22/5/1930 disobeyed the order under section 144 Cr.P.C. served on her by the Sub Divisional Magistrate, Vellore, on 22/5/1930, at Arni, prohibiting her from taking part in any meeting or demonstration held in sympathy with Salt Satyagraha movement at Arni, by addressing a gathering of about 3000 persons against the Salt Act, in Arni.

2. The particulars of the complaint were read out to the accused and she was asked to show cause why she should not be convicted. She admits having disobeyed the order.

3. I accordingly find her guilty, convict her under section 188 I.P.C. and sentence her to three months simple imprisonment. This sentence will take effect on the expiry of the sentence passed against her in C.C.No. 3 of 1930. She is placed provisionally in 'A' Class.
