Before P. Castelino Esq.,

Third Presidency Magistrate.

The 20th day of January 19132

Rex - vs - 1. S. Ambujammal, 2. L. Kamala Bai, 3. Janambal
sec. 4 of Ordinance V of 1932.

Order.

The three accused S. Ambujammal, L. Kamala Bai and Janambal are charged that on 18-1-32 they went together, and loitering near the foreign goods shops in Rattan Bazaar road, distributing type-written leaflets dissuading the people there from purchasing foreign goods and from having anything to do with any foreign -- concerns, an offence punishable under section 4 of Ordinance No. V of 1932.

2. P.W.1 Sub Inspector Abdul Saiyid saw the three accused distributing the typed leaflets to the people near the foreign goods shops of Chellaram, Cunniah Chetty and Gobindram in Rattan Bazaar road and also to people going into the last mentioned shop for purchasing goods. The accused first went near Chellaram's and Cunniah Chetty's shops and on their coming there and distributing the leaflets the shopkeepers closed the shops. After these two shops were closed, they went to the front of Gobindram's shop situated further north and distributed the leaflets, and just as that shop was being closed, he arrested them and collected some of the leaflets which had been distributed. He files one of the leaflets Ex.A which is an appeal to boycott foreign cloth, and British goods and concerns in particular. P.W.2 constable Abdul Ahed Saiyid whom he had posted on duty near -- Chellaram's shop came to him later in the evening and gave him two cyclostyled notices (Ex.C) saying that they were given to him by accused 3. These notices contain an appeal to the police not to obey their superiors.

3. P.W.2 supports P.W.1.

4. P.W.3 Sub Inspector Tiruvengkatachari says he served on accused 1 on 13-1-32 notice (copy Ex.D) from the Commissioner of Police warning her as "Dictator" not to do anything in furtherance of the aims of the Congress associations of which she had been -- appointed "Dictator".

5. Accused 2 says she does not know whether to plead guilty or not guilty. Accused 1 and 3 do not want to take part in the proceedings. They have no defence.

6. I find all the accused guilty under section 4 of Ordinance V of 1932. I sentence accused 2 to six months simple imprisonment. Accused 1 had a warning from the Commissioner of Police and she -- went with the full consciousness of the authority of her so-called dictatorship. The action of accused 3 in giving the cyclostyled notices to P.W.2 was a wanton attempt to subvert police discipline. I sentence accused 1 and accused 3 to six months simple imprisonment and a fine of Rs.50/- each, in default one weeks simple imprisonment.

Third Presidency Magistrate.
