SPARE COPIES

With reference to G.O.No.1133 Law (General) Department, dated 15th March 1930, I beg to submit to Government that I convicted 6 persons of an offence under section 143 I.P.C. yesterday in C.C.No.1226 of 1931 on my file. Accused 3, V. Venkata Subba Rao says he is the son-in-law of M.R.Ry., V. Parabramma Sastri, Retired Deputy Collector and nephew of M.R. Ry., Rao Sahib Dr. V. Ramakrishna Rao, Principal, Pittapuram Rajah's College, Coconada & M.R. Ry., Rao Sahib V.S.L. Narasimha Rao, Retired Deputy Registrar of Co-operative Societies and M.R. Ry., V.V. Subba Rao, Deputy Registrar of Co-operative Societies, Special duty, Madras. He states he gets an annual income of Rs.800 from lands in Gudivada taluk, and that he was by profession a teacher getting a salary of Rs.38 per month.

Accused 4, H. Veerabhadra Rao says that he is a native of Peddapuram owning lands and getting an annual income of Rs.1000. He was also employed as a clerk under a merchant getting Rs.30 per month.

Accused 5, P. Anja Lakshmiamma is the wife of P. Krishnamurthy, West Godavari who is undergoing imprisonment now at Vellore, has been classified as 'B' class prisoner.

Accused 6, S. Sakuntala Devi says she is the wife of one V.B.C.Rao, clerk, Industrial Institute, Adra, drawing a salary of Rs.80, that she was herself employed as a teacher in a Telugu Girls School getting a salary of Rs.28 per month.

I therefore beg to recommend to the Government that accused 3, accused 4, accused 5 and accused 6 may be classified as 'B' class prisoners. A copy of my judgment is enclosed.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

B. S. P. S. K. R. Rao
2nd Presidency Magistrate.

In the Presidency Magistrates' Court, George Town, Madras.

C.C.No.1226 of 31.

Rex (Crime) versus. K.Vankata Subba Rao and 5 others.

Charge:- That the accused along with 8 others were on 13-1-31 at the Godown street, Madras, members of an unlawful assembly whose common object was to commit an offence under section 188 I.P.C. by defying the order under section 144 Cr.P.C. issued by the Chief Presidency Magistrate, on 13-12-30 prohibiting picketting in any manner in this city for a period of two months from the date of the said order, an offence under section 143 I.P.C.

J u d g m e n t .

The charge against the 6 accused in this case is that they, along with 8 others, were on 13-1-31 at the Godown street, Madras, members of an unlawful assembly whose common object was to commit an offence under section 188 I.P.C. by ~~xxx~~ defying the order under section 144 Cr.P.C. issued by the Chief Presidency Magistrate on 13-12-30 prohibiting picketting in any manner in this city for a period of two months from the date of the said order.

Accused 1 pleads not guilty to the charge. The rest plead guilty.

The prosecution has examined 3 witnesses. Their evidence shows that the Chief Presidency Magistrate issued an order under section 144 Cr.P.C. prohibiting picketting in any manner in the city for a period of two months from 13-12-30, that the said order was duly promulgated, that the accused and 8 others assembled at the Godown street at about 10-30 a.m. on 13-1-31 with the intention of defying the above said order of the Chief Presidency Magistrate, that they afterwards stood in batches in front of some of the foreign cloth shops in the street and began to picket, that on the complaint of P.W.3, an intending purchaser who was prevented from entering a foreign cloth shop, the Police repaired to the spot and arrested the accused while engaged in the act of picketting, that 8 of the 14 persons arrested had apologised and were let off and that the remaining 6 persons have been charged under section 143 I.P.C.

The accused do not want to examine any defence witnesses. I have no reason to disbelieve the prosecution story and I therefore convict all the accused of an offence under section 143 I.P.C. and sentence accused 1 to accused 4 to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of six months each. Accused 5 is a woman with a child in arms. Accused 6 is also a woman. Both accused 5 and accused 6 are sentenced to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of six months each.
